ABOUT

ABOUT ROGIER

Rogier van Bakel is the founder of Eager Eye Photography, a full-service photo studio near Bar Harbor, Maine, in the heart of Acadia National Park. A native of the Netherlands, he brings the famous Dutch sense of light, order, and composition to photography.

Rogier photographs a maximum of twenty-two weddings each year, and turns down requests for additional ones in order to keep his wedding work fully focused on serving those twenty-two couples. He also crafts solo and family portraits, documents events for corporations and non-profits alike, and excels in all kinds of creative editorial assignments.

His evocative images have appeared in print and web publications on three continents. In the United States, Rogier's work has been published in Wired, Playboy, Creativity, Road & Track, Rolling Stone, and the New York Times.

Rogier has been a Maine resident since 2005. That year, after a decade in the trenches of the New York City magazine world, he and his wife bought a historic farmhouse on the Atlantic waters of Somes Sound, the fjord that bisects Mount Desert Island.

When Rogier is not working, he plays! You might find him hitting tennis balls with his beautiful Chinese-American daughters (ages 6, 12, and 14), walking his German shepherd, taking a leisurely drive in his signature yellow convertible, or attempting in vain to break the Tiny Wings world record on his iPhone.

ABOUT EAGER EYE

Eager Eye Photography specializes in out-of-the-ordinary wedding photography, serving non-traditional, non-stuffy clients in the United States and Europe.

At most weddings, we do about 45-60 minutes of posed (or, as we like to say, coached) photography with the couple and the families. The rest of the time, we work unobtrusively in the background, to capture genuine moments of real joy ... and all the other emotions that characterize the Big Day, from pre-ceremony jitters to party-time exuberance.

Our mission:

- To make clients moist-eyed and weak-kneed when viewing their wedding photos now and fifty years from now;
- To help the much-maligned genre of wedding photography shed its cheesy, uncool image;
- To deliver photojournalistic excellence in storytelling;
- To push the creative envelope;
- ...and to have (and share) a boatload of fun in the process!

WHAT WILL IT COST?

I'm neither the cheapest nor the most expensive wedding photographer in Maine. If a low price is a top consideration to you, we won't be a good match. (Also, I'm a big believer in the old Ben Franklin quip that "the bitterness of poor quality remains long after the sweetness of a low price is forgotten").

But...although I can't offer bargain-basement deals, I do offer one of the best values around.

Including the high-resolution digital files, my services start at $3,600 for a full-service wedding in Maine, and at $3,990 if you're getting married in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and beyond. (On my end, each wedding entails roughly a week's worth of work, from first consultation to post-processing to album design and delivery.)

Most of Eager Eye Photography's couples spend in the $3,800–$4,800 range. The exact amount depends on your wedding and your preferences. I'll gladly tailor-make a package that fits your needs. You can count on receiving the following:

- Attentive, full-service, experienced coverage;
- Two professional photographers (including me) at a full-size wedding;
- 6 to 10 hours of coverage;
- The high-resolution digital files, for you to own, with print rights and social-sharing rights;
- Unlimited number of photos taken;
- A mix of (lots of) photojournalism and (some) formal photography;
- A mix of color and hand-tinted black-and-white images;
- Expert retouching of all delivered photos (I tweak each selected image individually to magazine-quality standards, by hand);
- A beautiful custom web gallery, with no preset expiration date;
- Three hundred dollars' worth of acid-free, archival-quality lab prints (this print credit may also be applied to the purchase of a custom album);
- E-vault backup of all the images for a minimum of ten years, with a free-replacement guarantee;

plus

- Your choice of a variety of gorgeous, handmade-to-last albums, starting at $595.

Will your wedding be short and sweet? My fee for elopements and other small WEEKDAY weddings can be less than $1,200 dollars (two-hour minimum, available only within 90 minutes of Bar Harbor). Please call or text 207.266.7899, or e-mail hello@eagereyeweddings.com — I'll gladly to give you a custom quote.
