CUPY was born from my hands in 1993, in a popular neighborhood of the city of Cali in Colombia, South America. Between 1995 and the year 2004, I dedicated myself to transfer the commercial license of CUPY to local and Latin American companies, for the manufacture and commercialization of multiple youth products under the CUPY brand.

At the end of 2004 I decided to open the first store specialized in CUPY products, to achieve other ways to reach more young people and consolidate another business form with my CUPY STORE brand.

And WAO! what a surprise I felt the emotion of young people having a store specialized in CUPY, feeling that they identify and became fans of CUPY very faithfully and always expect new products in them.

Today we have grown a lot and I hope to continue doing so with new licensee clients in order to have partners to open new stores in Colombia and around the world.

THANK YOU CUPY FOR EVERYTHING YOU GIVE US!
