ICONIC, EXPERIENTIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Sydney - Australia

Michael Kennedy is based on Sydney's Northern Beaches , but like all Australians he loves to travel. Wanderlust has taken him all over the world. Recognized for his work as a finalist in the Hasselblad Masters multiple times he has also exhibited in the Olive Cotton Portrait Prize and the National Portrait Prize. "raw, gritty yet serene and simple photos that are masterfully executed." - Designers Couch on Michael Kennedy's work "A portrait photographer depends upon another person to complete his picture. The subject imagined, which in a sense is me, must be discovered in someone else willing to take part in a fiction he cannot possibly know about." - Richard Avedon
